

Optional “Paris Plus!”

- for more free time in Paris after Chez Vous!

After learning your way around this beautiful city during your intensive Chez Vous experience, you will be well-prepared to maximize further personal time exploring Paris on your own. The Institute is pleased to offer an optional package of services and resources for any Chez Vous student who would like to extend his or her stay in Paris beyond the Chez Vous program itself. “Paris Plus!” will provide you with an instant foundation for enjoying nearly 3 full days exploring Paris at your own rhythm and pace.

This “Paris Plus!” package includes . . .

- A “Later Return Date” on your airline ticket
- Lodging and breakfast for 3 nights in Paris
- Shuttle transportation for you (and your BAGS!) directly to your hotel on arrival, as well as directly to CDG airport on your departure
- Metro Pass for 3 days of unlimited travel on metros AND buses within Paris itself
- Museum Pass for 2 days of unlimited visits to 37 of the most popular museums in Paris
- Use of your international student ID card for additional discounts at other attractions and activities
- An orientation to the metros and buses serving your hotel, saving you lots of time “figuring things out”
- Orientation to economical eating options in Paris during your 3 days
- Orientation to security and safety concerns
- A phone number for you to reach us should you need advice or assistance during your extended personal stay

Total cost – $449

Just check this option off on your Master Checklist – we will include the cost on your Supplemental Services invoice and take care of everything from there!

Notes:

- Arrive in Paris area the morning of Day 1, depart Paris early morning on Day 4;
- Lodging provided in a 2-star hotel or in an upscale and highly reputable youth hostel; JLI reserves the right to choose and book lodging; you may also be rooming with other students or interns but only those affiliated with JLI;
- JLI staff in Normandy would be reachable by phone and available for help and advice (any assistance requiring expense would need to be reimbursed).
- The Institute’s Chez Vous program ends when you depart for Paris; this extended stay option is not a program activity, and simply includes the services and resources that will help you to maximize your own personal time in the city. And though we stand ready to help if needed, JLI is not responsible or liable for you and your activities during this personal extended stay in France.
