

* For an exam conflict please contact us

Study-Track A: Departs May 9*; Returns June 18

- Head-Start May 9 - | Study-Track B: Departs May 23; Returns July 4

- Head-Start May 23 - | Study-Track C: Departs June 12; Returns July 23

- Head-Start May 23 - | Study-Track E: Departs June 12; Returns July 23

Séjour: Departs and Returns: see “France Séjour” program sheet

French Grammar and Culture — 3 credit hrs. (Séjour option available)

Typically a student’s 3rd semester of college-level French, this course provides intensive work in all four language skills: speaking, listening, reading and writing. Study includes both review and expansion of grammar and phonetics foundational to oral and written communication, along with substantial experience interacting with French culture and target-language materials.

French Grammar and Conversation — 3 credit hrs. (Séjour option available)

Typically a student’s 4th semester of college-level French, this course continues to strengthen grammar comprehension while providing intensive work in all four language skills: speaking, listening, reading and writing. Study also includes basic phonetics. Extensive language use is applied in substantial interactions with French nationals, culture and target-language materials.

French Conversation and Phonetics — 3 credit hrs. (Typically 300 level) (Séjour option available)

This course provides intensive practice and instruction in French conversation, listening comprehension, and phonetics, with an additional focus on expanded vocabulary. Study includes continuing work in grammar, discourse, and critical thinking skills, and an orientation to informal and formal use of French. Taught in French by national professors at the Université de Caen.

French Christian History — 3 credit hrs. (300 or 400 level) (Séjour option available at 300 level)

From legendary stories of the Apostle Paul and St. Denis, through the medieval legends of Bishop Aubert and Rollo the Viking, to the spiritual forefather of the French Reformation, to the Reformation leader Jean Calvin, to the post-WWII missionary enterprise – the sweeping arc of Christianity has exerted a profound influence on the course of French history. This study will give students a deep understanding and appreciation for the rich spiritual heritage we enjoy through France. Taught in French.

400 Level: Includes 6-week term project in conjunction with French Civilization & History below.

French Civilization and History — 3 credit hrs. (300 or 400 level) (Séjour option available at 300 level)

This course introduces students to the historical side of French civilization (through WWII), then connects various historical threads to current institutional, political, and social aspects of modern France. The course involves numerous visits to related sites in Normandy and Paris, interacting with the topics studied while in the target culture. Taught in French.

400 Level: Includes 6-week term project in conjunction with French Christian History above.

Study-Track D is replaced by the Study-Track E 300 level option. Chez Vous reserves the option of changing arrival and/or departure dates a couple of days in either direction. Courses or Tracks may also be cancelled, but with full refunds given.

Which Study-Track is for me?

Each Study-Track is a complete program and can accommodate small differences in language ability among the students - your French professor can help you decide which track is best for you. This table gives a good idea of the college-level French credits a student would have already obtained prior to each Study-Track . . .

Candidates for:	would usually already have these prior credits:
Track A	6-8
Track B	8-11
Track C	12-14
Track E - 300 level	15-18
Track E - 400 level	18 and up

Head-Start Option

Need a Head-Start on your Study-Track? Feel like your French is a little “rusty,” or that some review would be helpful? Or with your professors permission, you could even earn 9 credits instead of 6! Check out the “Head-Start Option” sheet, and be sure to check this choice on your Application Form if you wish

